

Cooperation with DLC (Kazakhstan) allows us to cover all levels of oil field automation. Naftamatika controllers and control stations provide control of individual oil field facilities, NaftaSCADA provides data collection and equipment status analysis, and DLC software products provide the level of organization and planning, operating the collected data to optimize personnel management, material resources and business processes.

DLC

