

At the request of PDO (Oman), Naftamatika developed a control station for operation in extremely hot conditions with regular dust storms for high-power equipment (up to 125 kW). The problems with heat removal and protection from heavy dust were solved and worked out. The use of air-to-air heat exchangers was worked out.

